

K-LOVE is one of very few family oriented radio stations one can listen to in the presence of young children. Before I was a K-LOVE listener I frequently had to turn off the radio or keep changing stations. Not because of poor reception, but because of inappropriate language and topics discussed without warning, while listening to the radio in the presence of my 5 year old daughter. This radio station also teaches our children Christian faith and values within its song lyrics. I knew it was time to listen to a more positive and wholesome station when my 5 year old daughter started singing lyrics to the well known Jewell song "Pieces of You." The first two lines of this song start out like this:
"She's an ugly girl, does it make you want to kill her?
She's an ugly girl , do you want to kick in her face?
Our radio stations need less of this kind of music, if we expect our children to grow as caring and loving adults. After all, the thoughts and words of an individual develop before the actions are carried out. If K-LOVE were displaced by an LPFM broadcaster I truly believe I would not find a radio station that I could continually listen too in the presence of my daughter. No other radio station leaves you with a positive note both in its music and its commentary.
